- While we give fosters and adopters all available information on our animals, there is no guarantee on the animal's age, breed, health, future size, temperament, or longevity.
- All of our dogs are to be pets, kept indoors as a family member and are not to be chained outdoors or left to live outdoors only.
- Foster will obey local leash laws while pet is in their care and not allow any foster animals to free roam.
- Foster acknowledges that there can be a transition period involved when bringing home a new pet. Foster agrees to contact K9LR if help is needed during this transition or at any other times. Foster agrees to keep foster animal a minimum of 72 hours to allow animal to adjust.
- If foster becomes unable to keep the animal it will be returned only to K9 Lifeline Rescue. You are responsible for contacting the rescue and allowing a reasonable amount of time for the rescue to make a space for the animal to return to the facility or foster care.
- Should a medical emergency arise while the animal is in your care, please head to the nearest emergency pet clinic immediately and contact K9LR as quickly as possible. If you do not contact K9 Lifeline, you may be responsible for any unauthorized costs.
- Foster agrees that no action, claim, demand, or suit shall be brought by me against K9 Lifeline Rescue, its agents, officers, or veterinarians arising from this foster agreement. Foster releases K9 Lifeline Rescue and any staff, volunteers, fosters from any liability or cause of action related to the adoption or behavior of the dog post-adoption.
